ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In Mundhum, there is a beautiful story of the first formal Limboo marriage held between Pajai Tendhumyangba and Lupli Adenhangma, which was solemnized by the Demi-God Sodhung Lepmuhang in the presence of Sawa Yethangs and many Gods and Goddesses. The first Phungwana Samloo singers namely Kewa Phungba and Mangdenhangba, were requested to solemnized and blessed the marriage of this couple with Phungwana Samloo in the presence of these Gods and Goddesses. Since then tradition and practice of these marriage rituals followed generation after generation in the Limboo community which could be observed even today in the Phungwana Samloo of Limboo marriage as follows :

I gratefully acknowledge the debt of gratitude, which I owe to late Yeboko Yeba Ratna Bahadur Sambha (1938-1998) of Hee-goan, West Sikkim, a disciple of late Phajiko Phedangma Dhanman Subba, my father, who allowed me to record his live-performances of a number of rituals of which this is the one. His sudden and untimely demise on 27th October, 1998 shocked me. It is a great loss of a Mundhum resource person. I am also shocked to know untimely demise of Mrs. Amrita Tamling (10th October, 1998) as this Mundhum was recorded in her marriage only last year (1997). Let their soul rest in peace.

I also express my gratefulness to Phejiko Phedangma Jas Bahadur Tamling of Hee-goan, who also allowed me to record this Mundhum of marriage in the marriage ceremony of Mrs. and Mr. Jiwan Tamling of Hee-gaon in 1997. I am equally grateful to Yeboko Yeba Jas Lal Setling of Hee-goan and Samlupli Samba Run Bahadur Tamling of Martam, West Sikkim, who were also associated in the recording of this Mundum.

I am extremely grateful to a fatherly figure of Limboos Shri Padam Sing Muringla, for this befitting forward and his constant encouragement.

I am really grateful to Mrs. Sheela Thami Dahal and Mrs. Surya Kala Khewa for computer composing and Mr. Yem Prasad Subba for going through this manuscript.

My thanks are due to my wife Budha and my children for their constant support and co-operation.

Once again, I wish to thank all those, whose kind help and co-operation enabled me to accomplish this task.

- Jash Raj Limboo
